CERTS CAN SAVE LIVES AND PROTECT PROPERTY

SATURDAY MORNING – March 12, 2016

9:00 AM - DISASTER MEDICAL OPERATIONS

In a disaster, there may be more victims than rescuers, and assistance from medical professionals may not be immediately available. Topics covered: Treatment for life-threatening conditions — airway obstruction, bleeding, and shock — and for other, less urgent conditions; the greatest good for the greatest number of people conducting simple triage and rapid treatment

May Mones, MD FRCPC was a general practitioner in the Philippines before immigrating to Canada in 2012. She worked as a Bedside Physician at the Peter Lougheed Centre and Rockyview General Hospital and then went on to complete her Residency Training in Pediatrics at the Alberta Children's Hospital. She is Royal College Certified and recently started her practice as a Community Pediatrician in Cochrane.

10:45 AM - FOOD SAFETY

The Environmental Public Health Department of Alberta Health Services helps to provide, protect and promote a healthy environment.

Nadine Newman works as a public health inspector for Alberta Health Services for the past 12 years. She began her career in Northern Alberta as the field inspector for the towns of DeBolt, Valleyview and Fox Creek. She and her daughter, Jonnie, moved to Calgary in 2010 to focus on environmental health education. Nadine and Jonnie love to swim, ski, paddle and bike when they aren't at work or school.

12:45 PM - DISASTER PSYCHOLOGY

Caring for Yourself, Your Buddy, and Victims. This covers how to provide "psychological first aid" in response to the impact of disaster on rescuers and victims.

Beth Henry, CEO of Prairies to Peaks Consulting Inc. has provided certified Peer Support Training in the area of mental health throughout Western Canada. Beth has a keen interest in training and assisting those in care giving fields.

While we are responsible to others in a crisis situation, taking responsibility for others it is both easy to do and counter-productive. Practical strategies will be offered to safeguard community emergency responders.

2:30 PM - PERSONAL PREPAREDNESS & CERT EQUIPMENT

"Yourself, your family then your neighbours!" Your own preparedness in an emergency will make all the difference in you being able to assist your neighbours.

Brent Davis is the Emergency and Disaster Response Manager for Samaritan's Purse Canada responsible for both Canadian disasters as coordinated Samaritan's Purse resources for 16 Canadian disasters and 6 international disasters. Most recently in the Southern Alberta flood event which saw Samaritan's Purse engage over 5000 volunteers to assist 800 families in 6 municipalities across Southern Alberta.
